Presented by BHM Healthcare Solutions

BHM Healthcare Solutions

- BHM Healthcare Solutions offers a tremendous breadth and depth of services aimed at optimizing the financial and operational performance of health care enterprises and finding qualified candidates to meet the needs of a diverse range of organizations.

BHM Healthcare Solutions

- Our organization provides services both nationally and internationally working with insurers, government agencies and health care providers.
- Our healthcare management consulting services are designed to help our clients achieve their goals by aligning and optimizing their growth, operational, financial, and quality strategies.

BHM Healthcare Solutions

- Our health care consultants bring a collaborative, knowledge based, and broad building style to every project resulting in measurable results.
- As specialists in health care management consulting we are able to improve the efficiency, profitability, and processes of an organization.
- Whether you are looking for the ideal candidate, or assistance with interim staffing, BHM can assist you in finding a candidate that will fit the needs, budget, and demands of your business.

BHM Executive Recruiting

- BHM provides recruiting services to fill executive level positions in any organization. Unlike other health care recruiters we are a specialty healthcare recruiting firm and have developed a customized process for matching the right candidate with your organization. This process is then implemented by a dedicated team of consultants.

Executive Recruitment Search Process

- We assign a dedicated team of consultants to your search, providing more in depth customized services than other healthcare recruiting firms
- The team creates a detailed listing for the position including a thorough description of the position, qualifications, and salary range

Executive Recruitment Search Process Continued

- We implement a comprehensive search for candidates utilizing strategic marketing and recruiting strategies
- We conduct a complete review of the candidates including background, qualification, and accreditation

Executive Recruitment Search Process Continued

- A member of our healthcare recruiting firm will present your organization with the top three candidates and discuss the results of the initial interview
- We will arrange follow up interviews for members of your organization to meet with prospective candidates

Executive Recruitment Search Process Continued

- When your organization has made a final decision we will further assist you in the negotiation process and remain involved with both parties through the start date

BHM Interim Staffing

- Unlike most healthcare recruiting firms we focus exclusively on the healthcare and behavioral health professions.
- This targeted line of focus has allowed our team to compile a vast network of diverse professionals who are able to work on a temporary basis.
- Our many resources and contacts within the industry give us unique access to highly skilled professionals. These professionals can be brought in as a revision, or to maintain your program while permanent staffing is recruited.
- We have specific knowledge and understanding of the staffing needs of hospitals, psychiatric facilities, treatment centers, and other organizations

How Interim Staffing Can Help

- Interim staffing allows and organization to manage sporadic workloads
 - Vacation
 - Maternity
 - Termination
 - Other staffing issues
- Interim staffing solutions allow an organization the time it takes to conduct an in-depth search when key positions are vacated
- Our turn around implementation will smooth the transition process while we assist you in planning for your organizations future
